Burden

Foy Vance

Let me carry your burden
If something's not right I will let you know
Like the paint that's drying on a heart that's poor
Let me carry your burden
Get you back on a high when you're feeling low
When the weight is too heavy but you won't let goCome to me, my brother, and I will sit with you a while
Pretty soon I see you smile and you know you will
No matter how much you're hurting right now
You know that everything will change in time
So let me carry your burdenLet me carry your burden
When your mirth's on fire but your mind is cold
And you're finding flames that won't keep you warmCome to me, my brother, and I will sit with you a while
Pretty soon I see you smile and you know you will
No matter how much you're hurting right now
You know that everything will change in time
Let me carry your burden, oh brother of mineLet me carry your burden
Come tomorrow you'll be right out rained
In a quench of fire watch the way you're staying

Oh come to me, my brother, and I will sit with you a while
Pretty soon I see you smile and you know you will
No matter how much you're hurting right now
You know that everything will change in time
Oh, I just might see you in another light
Got no ... here in a fire
I could carry your burden, oh brother of mine
