Samurai

Michael Schenker Group

Silent warrior, of the east
Living for a course or to fight for peace
In your eyes reflects the sun
Red as any bloodSamurai do you live to die
Your eyes glued to the sky
Samurai have you no time to see?
The love waiting for you
SamuraiWhen she calls to you, do you hear?
Murmur of your child, still he's waiting there
Blades of steel may take your life
None can kill a loveSamurai do you live to die
Your eyes, oh
Samurai have you no time to see?
The love waiting for youStronger than the sun, your desire
Changing all around, frenzied by the fire
Blinded by the inner light
Did you lose the way?Samurai do you live to die
Your eyes, oh
Samurai have you no time to see?
The love waiting for youSamurai do you live to die
Your eyes glued to the sky
Samurai have you no time to see?
The love waiting for you
Samurai
