

The Burden

Slipknot

(There's God) There's God
Can I feed you again?
Will I have to stay dumb?
You can feel and it begins
But I know inside this heart attack
I can see through your eyes
I'm terrified of everything
But it's no real surprise
Because the parasites are dancing closer
All this sacrilegious warns in posters
Can you handle it? In the dark
Why I think I'm alone
I swept through my visions
I'm going too cold
Today is a tragedy
In the mouth of the mad
But that doesn't matter now
I've come relaxed
I'm curled up in a ball, and shaking
I'm hiding from the hell I'm making
I can't believe the chance I'm taking
Is there any other way?
Is there any other way? The burden
The burden (You can't save me)
There is nothing more to give
(I am changing)
Almost like I never lived
(Be me witness)
Just don't leave me in suspense
(Keep this, prove it)
Tell them all the consequences The burden
(Have you ever been burdened before?)
The burden
(Was there anything you wanted more?) (You can't save me)
There is nothing more to give
(I am changing)
Almost like I never lived
(Be my witness)
Just don't leave me in suspense

(Keep this, prove it)
Tell them all the consequences Our same plea
By now you know that looks are deceiving
I'm covered in a rash and receding
Is there any other way?
Is there any other way? For gods' sakes we've suffered
His pain is now our lives
For gods' sakes we've suffered enough For gods' sakes we've suffered
His pain is now our lives
For gods' sakes we've suffered enough For gods' sakes we've suffered
His pain is now our lives
For gods' sakes we've suffered enough For gods' sakes we've suffered
His pain is now our lives
For gods' sakes we've suffered enough Enough
Enough
Enough
