

Body 2 Body (feat. Chris Brown)

Ace Hood

[Chorus]

Baby you don't have to try to read my mind

Cause you know I wanna get it in

And tell me why would we just think about

If you want it then I got it

We can be body to body

Body to body

I don't mean to rush you girl

But we should be body to body

Body to body, body to body Uh, picture your body soaking, bath water

No panties on, come up out them leg warmers

Wrap up your hair, leave on your heels

Kissing you while I whisper, shawty how it feel

Let ya mind wonder, oh you're thinking dirty

I was thinking you can ride me, miss Kentucky derby

Why dream about it, let's take advantage

My body on your body, hope that you can manage

Gotta moan it, damn it, feels good

Pulling on her hair to let her know I'm still hood

Damn right, so unreal

This year of the Ace, bet you she know the deal [Chorus] Uh, so quit ya contemplating, skip this conversation

By the way you biting on your lip just gave me confirmation

Was that Chanel Five? Very sexy fragrance

Are those your real eyes? Can tell you're partially Asian

But I know your body got me focused, I'm just so sedated

And I guarantee I do you better than your past-n-latest

Body to body, wet as Dasani

Bet if I hit the spot, I'll make you tsunami

Change up the sheets, no time to sleep

Asked her what she thinking, she reply that I'm a beast

Yeah she replied that I'm a beast

Got it locked between the sheets and even in the streets [Chorus] We'll make love on the floor, you kissing my tattoos

I'm pulling your hair you scream my name

Call me daddy, baby I got you

Girl get in your bed and lay down, down, down

Girl, are you ready, 'cause I'm gonna want you face down, down, down

Right now, you fuckin' with a real freak! [Chorus]
