

White Diamonds (Ray Mang Remix)

Friendly Fires

Oh, she was young in her mind
They're the days, they were old and tired
Along came a love
She had yearned for so long, oh, she felt on fire
She'd do anything for him
She'd do anything for him
Oh, he was close as the label in a shirt
Oh, he would lace handkerchief in the rain
If she ever walked by
He'd do anything for her
He'd do anything for her
Hold back and keep slow
All the light's out in your cold heart now
Hold back and keep slow
All the light's out in your cold heart now
Stuck in a world that would pull them apart
And it cost in time
If only they knew up ahead loomed a cloud
That was as black as night
She'd do anything for him
She'd do anything for him
Oh, they were strong
They could take on the world and put up a fight
And even the clouds couldn't stand in the way
When they held on tight
He'd do anything for her
He'd do anything for her
Hold back and keep slow
All the light's out in your cold heart now
Hold back and keep slow
All the light's out in your cold heart now
Don't hold your breath too long
For white diamonds in the snow
Don't hold your breath too long
For white diamonds in the snow
Hold back and keep slow
All the light's out in your cold heart now
Hold back and keep slow
All the light's out in your cold heart now
