Serve the Masses

Gorefest

I'd turn my back and walk away
If I could save this world in one day
I just do not feel the urgeI am a servant, I am a serpent
And I serve what you deserveI've waited for this way too long
The feelings never been so strong
I want to show you how I feelI am your servant, I am your serpent
And I serve what you deserveServing the masses
Scatter the ashes
Trample the masses
Serving the ashesServing the masses
