Guess Who's Knocking

Ryan Bingham

Guess who is knocking on the door?
Guess who is knocking on the door?
Guess who is knocking on the door?
It's me motherfucker, I'm knocking on the door!

Lie, I'm the brave young lad
Out of the wild I run
I'm the forsaken child,
Swept underneath your hood
Guess who is knocking on the door?
Guess who is knocking on the door?
Guess who is knocking on the door?

It's me motherfucker, I'm knocking on the door!

Lie, I'm the brave young lad
Followed by hollowed years
I learn to bark and knock
You keep your mother near

Guess who is knocking on the door?
Guess who is knocking on the door?
Guess who is knocking on the door?
It's me motherfucker, I'm knocking on the door!
It's me motherfucker, I'm knocking on the door!
It's me motherfucker, I'm knocking on the door!
