

Loving Arms

Livingston Taylor with Leah Kunkel

In the middle of a thought, you crossed my mind
I sit and wonder how you are, baby all the time
I miss you when youre gone and when you come back
Im gonna show you that I love you 'cause I want you to know that I dont need much
When Im in your arms
Just to feel youre touch
Is enough to keep me safe from harm Youre loving arms is where I wanna be
When Im holding you and youre holding me
Things will be fine, just follow my lead
'Cause your loving arms is what I need In the middle of the night, you invade my dreams
All the happiness we shared, seem so real to me
The moment I awake, I know for a fact
That you would never leave me baby 'cause you already know that I dont need much
When Im in your arms
Just to feel your touch
Is enough to keep me safe from harm Youre loving arms is where I wanna be
When Im holding you and youre holding me
Things will be fine, just follow my lead
'Cause your loving arms is what I need Youre loving arms is where I wanna be
When Im holding you and youre holding me
Things will be fine, just follow my lead
'Cause your loving arms is what I need I dont need much
When Im in your arms
Just to feel your touch
Is enough to keep me safe from harm Youre loving arms is where I wanna be
'Cause when Im holding you and youre holding me
Things will be fine, just follow my lead
'Cause your loving arms is what I need Youre loving arms is where I wanna be
'Cause when Im holding you and youre holding me
Things will be fine, just follow my lead
