Hey (feat. Afrojack)

Fais

I seen the look in your face Telling me a story You don't have to be alone I love to see you smiling Why you try to hide it? Don't you know you've got it all?I know when you're gone You do your thing And you live like you want I know when you're gone You're just looking for a little sign of loveI said hey Won't you come with me? I said hey-ey, hey-ey Hey, won't you stay with me? I say hey-ey, hey-eyI said hey Won't you come with me? I said hey-ey, hey-ey Hey, won't you stay with me? I said hey-ey, hey-eySee the way you moving No need for introducing You're everything a man could want You and I, we both know Only one with this course Baby let me take you homeI know when you're gone You do your thing And you live like you want I know when you're gone All you're looking for is a little sign of loveI said hey Won't you come with me? I said hey-ey, hey-ey Hey, won't you stay with me? I say hey-ey, hey-eyI said hey Won't you come with me? I said hey-ey, hey-ey Hey, won't you stay with me? I said hey-ey, hey-eyI said hey Won't you come with me? I said hey-ey, hey-ey Hey, won't you stay with me?

I say hey-ey, hey-eyI said hey

Won't you come with me?
I said hey-ey, hey-ey
Hey, won't you stay with me?
I said hey-ey, hey-eyI said hey
Won't you come with me?
I said hey-ey, hey-ey
Hey, won't you stay with me?
I say hey-ey, hey-eyI said hey
Won't you come with me?
I said hey-ey, hey-ey
Hey, won't you stay with me?
I said hey-ey, hey-ey
