Black Tie

Ramp

You're awake
To a new view of life
A new level of mind stateYou're afraid
Of what should be the end to see
What next it's going to beIn my life, in my race
I've wasted so much spaceSeemed to be
Far away
Now you taste
Your mistakes... waiting for the black tieYou're depressed
Now you'd like to turn back
Life ain't just successYou're redeemed
Now you cry and you know why
You've missed the real sense of lifeSeemed to be
Far away
Now you taste
Your mistakes... waiting for the black tieYou take them all out
In this hell you see
You pay for all your blames
But your life is gone you see
To cold endless painSeemed to be
Far away
Now you taste
Your mistakes... waiting for the black tieYou're... dead
