Handshakes To Fist Fights

Devour The Day

I met death in Memphis
In those lonely city streets
But I have found redemption
From that road that buried me
No matter what they do or say
Don't let them take this dream awayRise up, rise up
The world can't shut us downGone too far, too far to go back
Relapse and go back to rehab
Made our way through hard days and long nights
Handshakes that turned into fist fights
We rise and we fall
We stand back up and evolve
We've come too far to just go back
I ain't going out like that
I ain't going out like thatFort Wayne couldn't save me
Infatuation isn't love
I went fucking crazy
It showed me who I really was
No matter what they say or do
They can't take that away from youRise up, rise up
The world can't shut us downGone too far, too far to go back
Relapse and go back to rehab
Made our way through hard days and long nights
Handshakes that turned into fist fights
We rise and we fall
We stand back up and evolve
We've come too far to just go back
But I ain't going out like thatCome too far, too far just to go back
I ain't going out, I ain't going out like that Come too far, too far just to go back
I ain't going out, I ain't going out like thatNo, I ain't going out like that
I ain't going out like that
No, I ain't going out like that
I ain't going out like thatGone too far, too far to go back
Relapse and go back to rehab
Made our way through hard days and long nights
Handshakes that turned into fist fights
We rise and we fall
We stand back up and evolve

We've come too far to just go back
I ain't going out like thatI ain't going out like that
