This Isn't A Trap, I Promise

Go Radio

I sang don't let me die for far too long
And I spent too many of my lines on some sad, sad songs, but I
I just came to say I moved on Cause she keeps the sun for all of florida in her jacket
And then she laughs 'cause I don't think she knows she has it
And its days like today, life gets great

And I hope, you're living it

Cause I've been waiting forever and a day
Just hoping I wouldn't miss it
I know you feel this way, but do I feel the same
A touch is enough, is it my fault if you get caught

And I tried to leave a silver kiss inside her pocket
So when she got back to Carolina she could find it
But words she left on my lips were bittersweet
She never knew or half believed she was important
And never heard me when I told she was gorgeous
But its the first day that the sun sheds for me

And I hope, that it sheds for you
And I hope, that it sheds for you

Cause I've been waiting forever and a day
Just hoping I wouldn't miss it
I know you feel this way, but do I feel the same
A touch is enough, is it my fault if you just get
Caught still waiting and hoping something changes
Don't blink or you'll probably miss it
I know you feel this way, but do I feel the same
A touch is enough, its not my fault if you just

Did you run, Did you crawl
Did I almost cause you to help you here
Did I stay, Such a far
Did you fall, Did I catch you
Did you hurt, Like I meant to you

Nah nah, nah nah- forever and a day

Just hoping I wouldn't miss it
I know you feel this way, but do I feel the same
A touch is enough, is it my fault if you just get
Caught still waiting and hoping something changes
Don't blink or you'll probably miss it
I know you feel this way, but do I feel the same
A touch is enough, its not my fault if you just get caught

Nah nah, nah nah, nah nah nah nah nah
Nah nah, nah nah, nah nah nah nah nah
Nah nah, nah nah, nah nah nah nah nah
A touch is enough, its not my fault if you just get
A touch is enough, I guess it's right that we just get caught
