Audio Barricade

Prozak

people tell me i never really smile maybe if the knew me ever since i was a child maybe understand the reason for my with draw lately it's been worse then it has in a long while u see my brain just thinks a lot often lost in thought often space lost just cant seem to get it together been losing my patient a lot hope full for the better whatever it take to make it stop if u felling like em then you'll understand then if u don't i apologize in advance but on the other hand i don't really give a dam take it or leave it i am who i am just another person trying to find his way trying to figure it out trying to find my place it's ether lead, follow or get out of the way life is to short to fast so turn the page Turn the page ((audio Barricade)) break down ((audio Barricade))
break down ((audio Barricade))
break down ((audio Barricade))
((audio Barricade))
Break downsometimes i really think im losing it i don't really know what i would do with out the therapy of music therapeutic no substituting can't erase the pain but sure helps sub do it helps me get through dismiss my issues give me a lift??? sort of like a force filed that protects u audio barricade i sajust u turn it up a little louder when u felling lonesome or felling down some when u really felling like your hitting rock bottom nothing to break your fall but more problems and all the walls seem closing in on you nothing but darkness to fall upon you fells like all is lost everything around you the song will rise again u got to push onward Push on word ((audio Barricade))
break down ((audio Barricade))
break down ((audio Barricade))
break down ((audio Barricade))
((audio Barricade))
Break downevery time i look around i can't help but pray for something or someone to save us from our own ways that seems to plague us from the dawn time my hate is contages all we really got to do is live and let live enjoy the ride well it exist man and that's it kind of simple ant it so why complicate it with all the bullshit and games that people play in it if they want to make there own graves let em lay in it all trying im saying is don't create your pain otherwise your be the one to blame and that's being honest another lame brain idiot walking around us everyday can be a new day if you let it try to focus on the positive and not the negative nonsense im just saying let it go off by the way side so many people trying to bring you down they drag you to the bottom and then try to watch u drown and pretending to be friends but yet somehow always a reason to run there mouth so jealousSo jealous ((audio Barricade))

break down ((audio Barricade))
break down ((audio Barricade))
break down ((audio Barricade)) ((audio Barricade))turn it up watch it all just go away turn it up watch it all just fade awayturn it up watch it all just go away turn it up watch it all just fade away
