

All About Ya'll (feat. Josh Gracin)

Colt Ford

It's why the color pink was made
It's why we wear cheap aftershave and bathe
It's why we left the caveIt's why we learned to play guitar
Use chopsticks and a sushi bar
It's why we butcher poetry
You make payments on a big ol' diamond ringIt's all about y'all
Yeah, why we bathe, why we crawl
Why we aim to please, babyIt's all about y'all
Make us crazy, girls, women
I don't believe this
It's why the whole world be fun
It's all about y'allDrop our friends and exercise
Watch chick flicks and pretend to cry
Trade whiskey for a bottle of good red wineIt's why was invented
It's why tuxedos get rented
It's why well say that's interesting
When you're so hot is what we really meanIt's all about y'all
Yeah, why we bathe, why we crawl
Why we aim to please, babyIt's all about y'all
Make us crazy, girls, women
I don't believe this
It's why the whole world be fun
It's all about y'allOn the cover of men's
And women's magazines
Daytime, nighttime TV
Shopping malls, wall to wall
You've written everythingYou see, we take the bait
Get caught in the fish net
Lord, here she goes
Just licks her lips wet, woo
High heels striking like lightning
She's got best friends fighting, yeahAnd the band crescendos
Take you all aboard
All thought went out the window
She starts batting the lashes
Hundred dollar bills going up in ashes, yeahIt's all about y'all
Yeah, why we bathe, why we crawl
Why we aim to please, babyIt's all about y'all
Make us crazy, girls, women

I don't believe this
It's why the whole world be fun
It's all about y'all It's all about y'all
