

Touch

Shura

(Hook)

There's a love between us still
but something's changed and I don't know why
and all I wanna do is go home with you but I know I'm out of my mind(Verse 1)

I wanna touch you but I'm too late
I wanna touch you but there's history
I can't believe that it's been three years now when I see you it's so bittersweet(Hook)

There's a love between us still
but something's changed and I don't know why
and all I wanna do is go home with you
but I know I'm out of my mind(Verse 2)
You wanna touch me but you're too late you wanna touch me but there's too much history starting to live the lies we tell ourselves
I only need you to be friends with me(Hook)

There's a love between us still
but something's changed and I don't know why
and all I wanna do is go home with you but I know I'm out of my mind
There's a love between us still
but something's changed and I don't know why (I've never felt so close, but now I know that its over)
and all I wanna do is go home with you
but I know I'm out of my mind
(Between us)
