

Planet Of Women

ZZ Top

What can I do, I'm a nervous wreck?
There's girls everywhere, I better go and check
I can't tell a diamond from a hole in the ground
They all got my head spinning round and round Planet of women, oh yeah
The planet of women, oh yeah
It's driving me insane They start by acting just a little discreet
Then they're in the skies and they're in the streets
You can find them in cars or a hotel lobby
They're easy to find, just look for the body Planet of women, oh yeah
Just a planet of women, oh yeah
Driving me insane If you have the answer, drop me a line today
Or send a straight jacket something in a shade of gray
I think I've sprained my brain 'cause it won't unwind
Every day it's man against man On the planet of women, oh yeah
Just a planet of women, oh yeah
Driving me insane, it's driving me insane
