Become

Midge Ure

Still standing on my own
No life no heart no love no home
Still behind the door
Waiting to be accepted
And I can only wait so long
Before I turn from nil to some Waiting here to be, to be, to be
To become
Something good
Something strong
To become what you rely on
Take the chance
To become
Time to go
Time to leave
To believe what you believe in
Make the change
To become
Wait, wait for everything
To change
When everything gets better
Better for my solo, so low life
Not so rejected
If there's a God above
Then send me love
Take me where I belong
To be, to be
To become
Something good
Something strong
To become what you rely on
Take the chance
To become
Time to go
Time to leave
To believe what you believe in
Make the change
To become
There's life for a lifetime

But gone in a moment
If life doesn't move
Then there's nothing to show for it all.
Something good
Something strong
To become what you rely on
Take the chance
To become
Time to go
Time to leave
To believe what you believe in
Make the change
To become
