Love Song

David Jordan

I'm sick of what I'm hearing
I'm sick of that whole sound
I'm sick of that whole vibe that I feel when you come around
I don't like confrontations
They really drag me down
I don't like hiding my feelings cause my head it starts to poundI'm having trouble fighting demons that surround me
Regain my self control, head back to what I know
Dragging me down I'm still your clown, why do we Always have to fight
Have to fightWhy can't we just get along
Why does one of us have to cry
Why do we keep breaking our hearts (oh why oh why)
How come we never kiss each other
Just to say goodbye
How do you save two breaking hearts
That are torn beneath the tideWe never used to argue
We never used to fight
But now we've thrown ourselves away
And we stay apart all night
What can I do to help you, how can I help myself
How do I rebuild the base of this relationship if there's nothing leftI'm Suffocating from these demons they won't let me be
They came to take control and wipe out all we know
Who gets the blame, we get the blame
Too late to put it all aside, all asideWhy can't we just get along
Why does one of us have to cry
Why do we keep breaking our hearts (oh why oh why)
How come we never kiss each other
Just to say goodbye
How do you save two breaking hearts
That are torn beneath the tideWe never consider each other
What we do and how we feel
Because we are stringing out the past won't come again
Why do we play these games and force them
Onto breakdown what we had, just think of what we hadWhy can't we just get along
Why does one of us have to cry
Why do we keep breaking our hearts (oh why oh why)
How come we never kiss each other

Just to say goodbye
How do you save two breaking hearts
That are torn beneath the tideWe tried and tried but it's all wrong
Baby it's time to say goodbye
How do you save two breaking hearts
It's too late to save our broken hearts
How do you save two broken hearts
