

Wall of Sound

Armin van Buuren

He said
I am the worldly wise
Just look into my eyes
And wish for anything And so she held his gaze
And fell into his maze
And saw that all around
Was just a wall of sound I bet it's all around
See it through his eyes
I can touch the wall of sound
And feel I bet it's all around
See it through his eyes
I can touch the wall of sound
And feel alive She felt a warm descend
Her life from start to end
A magic energy No longer half alive
Emerged and mesmerized
A perfect vision found
Inside the wall of sound I bet it's all around
See it through his eyes
I can touch the wall of sound
And feel I bet it's all around
See it through his eyes
I can touch the wall of sound
And feel alive
