The Letter

Ace Young

youve got to let it go you say you know more then you want to know feeling traumatized the way she put it down was not for your eyes it was just another letter after all you should know better youve got to let it slide i just want to love you think its time you finally realizei didnt do it she only wants to get between you and me i cant beleive it theres no reason for this jealuosy dont say its to late to set the record straight i didnt do it, no i didnt do it its just a letteryour misconception plays you let her words just take us seperate ways dont over analize shes just somebody trying to get you with her lies its just another letter you should know better youre still my everything so ive met her baby that dont mean a thingrepeat chorusshe made up this one sided rendezvous im sorry it had to come back to you the flowers the pictures i cant explain im trying my best so dont turn awayrepeat chorus
