

Bitter Pride

Sylvia Tyson

I'm not so much a schemer
As I am a full time dreamer And I'm not so much unhappy as I am dissatisfied and I'm really not a loser but I'm surely not a keeper and I'd call on you this morning but I have my pride

CHORUS:

And I have pride, bitter pride with my coffee every morning
 And I have leftover pride with my dinner at night
 And what good does it do me when I need someone to love me just the cold consolation of knowing that I'm right

 Oh pride is it a liar and the fastest gun for fire and no reasonable reason for living alone for pride cannot hold me in the dark hours of the morning when my body is aching, it won't come

CHORUS:

And I have pride, bitter pride
with my coffee every morning
 with my dinner at night
 just the cold consolation
