

Shackler's Revenge

Guns N' Roses

I've got a funny feeling
There's something wrong today
I've got a funny feeling
And it won't go away I've got an itchy finger
And there'll be hell to pay
I'm gonna pull the trigger
And blow them all away Don't ever try to tell me
How much you care for me
Don't ever try to tell me
How you were there for me I don't believe there's a reason
(I don't believe it)
I don't believe it
I don't believe there's a reason
(I should believe it)
I don't believe it I've got a wicked demon
His hunger never fades
I've got an empty feeling
I won't be home today Don't ever try to tell me
How much you care for me
Don't ever try to tell me
How you were there for me I don't believe there's a reason
(I don't believe it)
I don't believe it
I don't believe there's a reason
(I should believe it)
I don't believe it I don't believe there's a reason
(I don't believe it)
I don't believe it
I don't believe there's a reason
(I should believe it)
I don't believe it No one is stopping you
From doing what you want to do
No one is stopping you now
Stopping you now I don't believe there's a reason
(I don't believe it)
I don't believe it
I don't believe there's a reason
(I should believe it)
I don't believe it I don't believe there's a reason

(I don't believe it)
I don't believe it
I don't believe there's a reason
(I should believe it)
I don't believe it
