

Love Will Find a Way

Latrice Brown/Victor Romeo

Picture walking, a dusty road
Summer breeze on my body flows
Dreaming of a blue horizon
Meet me where the sun is shining
He's coming for my love
He's the one I'm thinking of
Let me show you what I mean
We'll be living in a dream
Can't stop thinking about your love
Light shining down on my whole life
Wanting you to stay
I know that love will find a way
Each night I stare into the stars
Each night I wonder where you are
I know that love will find a way
Secret paradise at rainbow's end
There in the distance we meet again
Have you been on your best behaviour
We can talk about it later
He's coming for my love

He's the one I'm thinking of
Let me show you what I mean
We'll be living in a dream
Can't stop thinking about your love
Light shining down on my whole life
Wanting you to stay
I know that love will find a way
Each night I stare into the stars
I wonder where you are
I know that love will find a way
We will find
Love this time
Shining down
Each night I stare into the stars
I wonder where you are
Can't stop thinking about your love
Light shining down on my whole life
Wanting you to stay

I know that love will find a way
Each night I stare into the stars
I wonder where you are
I know that love will find a way
