Candlemass

Some are born to sweet delight
Some are born to endless night
    So pale and lifeless
    What you're doing to me
    I'm doing to myself
    I close the iris to the sun
It once was open, soon its gone
    Soon it's gone
    Soon it's gone
    So pale and lifeless
    What you're doing to me
    I'm doing to myself
