Big Brat

Phantom Planet

It was all his fault introduced me to know it all and the cannibal
Oh, well by the time they started showing up
I ran the risk of blowing up, these times, these times get tough
So if I stay we're going to see who's had enough by the time I needed Backing up, yeah, he was watching, cracking up, this time, this time
It's tough well here I am and now and I think I've had enoughAhh stand back
Take that and that and thatYou're always up to no good
Yeah you're always up to no goodWell, I was trapped in from all sides caught in a slew of nasty lies
No, there is no escape, only flailing arms and bellyaches
When it all started coming down, tonight, boy, did you run and hide?
I guess that we all make mistakes, I guess I forgave you, didn't I?Ahh stand back
You're such a big bratYeah, you're always up to no good
Yeah, you're always up to no goodYeah, you're always up to no good
Yeah, you're always up to no goodOh, well by the time they started showing up
I ran the risk of blowing up, these times, these times get tough
So if I stay we're going to see who's had enough by the time I needed Backing up, yeah, he was watching, cracking up, this time, this time
It's tough well here I am and now and I think I've had enoughAhh, stand back
Stand back, stand back
You big brat
