

Hurry Sunrise

Ranger Doug

Hurry sunrise
Iâ€™ve been waiting all night
Endless hours have passed as I lie here and wait for the light

Hurry sunrise
Iâ€™ve done all I can do
To forget her sweet song as I wait for the dawn to break through

Iâ€™m all right through the day
â€˜Cause Iâ€™m busy with cattle to tend
But the nights are so long
With a heart I donâ€™t know how to mend

The moon and the stars sail silently on through the sky
While my hardened heart and its sorrow keeps whispering by

Hurry sunrise
Whatâ€™s taking so long?
Every minuteâ€™s an hour reliving the moments weâ€™ve known
Each memoryâ€™s a crystalline treasure of true love and trust
All come down to this: endless nights and ashes and dust

Iâ€™m all right through the day
â€˜Cause Iâ€™m busy with cattle to tend
But the nights are so long
With a heart I donâ€™t know how to mend

The moon and the stars sail silently on through the sky
While my hardened heart and its sorrow keeps whispering by

Hurry sunrise
Whatâ€™s taking so long?
Every minuteâ€™s an hour reliving the moments weâ€™ve known
Each memoryâ€™s a crystalline treasure of true love and trust
All come down to this: endless nights and ashes and dust
