

It Happens All the Time

Tyler Shaw

Only you, can make me feel like I do
But you don't know, 'cause it never shows through
Try to find things to say, to make you notice
But every word runs away, before they're spoken
I find myself, tied up in emotions I step back
And I should've told you Everytime you smile, there's sunshine
There's something in your eyes, I can't deny
Your gravity, keeps pulling me in
It happens all the time Everytime you're standing near me
And everytime I hear you say my name
I get a rush, and all I see is you
It happens all the time
I'm losing sleep, living life in a daydream
I'm in a sweat, the way you're making my heart beat
Another day, another night
I'm keeping quiet
About the way I come alive
And I can fight it I'm on fire
Will you ever feel it I step back
And I should've told you Everytime you smile, there's sunshine
There's something in your eyes, I can't deny
Your gravity, keeps pulling me in
It happens all the time Everytime you're standing near me
And everytime I hear you say my name
I get a rush, and all I see is you
It happens all the time
And in that moment you turn
I get a chance to be heard
And I know you're listening, oh
It's time to let it go
And tell you what you need to hear Everytime you smile, there's sunshine, yeah
There's something in your eyes, I can't deny Everytime you smile, there's sunshine
There's something in your eyes, I can't deny
Your gravity, keeps pulling me in
It happens all the time Everytime you're standing near me
And everytime I hear you say my name
I get a rush, and all I see is you
It happens all the time I get a rush
It happens all the time

Woah, it happens all the time
