

Erotic Saints

Zeromancer

Erotic saints, rated R
Rainbow veins and sunlight scars
Say my name, say my name Keep me dry in a cool place
Get me out in a few days
I will feel so much better Until we all are grown apart
We live our lives the way we want
Until we all are torn apart Been in for days, neon tan
Asbestos lips will kiss your hand
Every word you say, blow me away This is it, here it comes
I think I'll quit to use my lungs
Better dreams, airbrush a tumor Until we all are grown apart
We live our lives the way we want
Until we all are torn apart Until we all are grown apart
We live our lives the way we want
Until we all are torn apart Until we all are torn apart
Until we all are torn apart
Are torn apart Until we all are grown apart
We live our lives the way we want
Until we all are torn apart
Are torn apart Until we all are grown apart
We live our lives the way we want
Until we all are torn apart
Are torn apart
