Beyond the Call

Noyze

I'm searching for the anger
Consider it a gift
Open up that window
Come betray me with a kissYou have won, if nothing else
Rope enough to hang yourself
What is that to us?Go beyond the call of love
Beyond the dreams of man
I have seen where glory falls
At the touch of mercy's handThe truth you would deny me
Lying like a rock
How you gonna wake up
To the one that you forgotCover up was your intent
Acting like it's accident
Isn't it enoughSomeday when hearts grown stronger
I'll know where darkness wandered
But I won't wait much longer
