

A Grade Playa

Sheppard

Now that your gone and never coming back I feel as though my heart will never stay intact
I was just an apple that you chewed till your through the core

You've got a lot of charm and yeah it sucked me in You made me feel loved when I was wearing thin You're the only reason why a rose ever grows a thorn

Cause I was a treasure and you had the key But now it stays buried with me

Cause you're a grade playa, a fighter, a hater
And I know better than to waste it all on you Through your cheating, scheming, I'm still believing
That I'll find a dude who was better than you go on, go on, go on, go on

go on, go on, go on, go on
go on, go on, go on, go on, be gone

If there were a number for the biggest sleaze
There wouldn't be any other nominees
I'm guessin' all your lies were a blessing in disguise for me

Cause I am a diamond I'm more than a stone
And you're just a boy on a throne

Cause you're a grade player, a fighter, a hater
And I know better than to waste it all on you
Through your cheating, scheming I'm still believing
That I'll find a dude who was better than you

go on, go on, go on, go on
go on, go on, go on, go on, be gone well I will find another one Your a gram within a tonne Just a raindrop in the flood and now your walking into wall

To find the sunlight in the storm
To meet the right me in the swarm

You're just an illusion and I've left the show
I make sure that everyone knows

Cause you're a grade player, a fighter, a hater
And I know better than to waste all on you
Through your cheating, scheming, I'm still believing
That I'll find a dude who was better than you

go on, go on, go on, go on
go on, go on, go on, go on, be gone
