

How Many (piano by Micheal Aaberg)

Zion I

How many times have you watched the sun rise How many times have you looked deep into your lovers eyes how many times have we spit phat rhymes
 how many times
 how many times
 yo
 how many rhymes would it take just for you to relate and understand that we're livin in a police state how many a pretty penny I would guess non the less
 ??? he's got us all desensitized under stress how many tales of whore shore to shore before the last days is here that for shore how many days before we get more mature and brothers with babies take care of there ladies how many mics get crushed blown to dust before we discover the true power within us
 how many times can we rhyme about the same thing before we realize stand up we got to change things how many times have you seen the sun set how many times has your ass been in debt how many times have you bumped our cassete?
 how many times
 yo
 how many times do the seasons turn for babaloyn burn this is my own concern to carry on traditional listen yo how many brothers tears have shed by my people for over four hundred years how many times have you lied cheated acted conceited didn't needed you want it how many times runnin how many scars and cuts bruises from the battle from those who got beef how many ever seen cattle killed in cold blood

so you can eat it up0 how much more till somebody says that's enough how many times have you watched a full moon?
how many times have you cried alone in your room how many times have you felt the bass boom?

how many more of the hardcore rappers and gun clappers gotta die before we realize ??zion i??

how many change in shadows how much came in tobacco how many bottles of 40 oz death can we tackle how many at the chapple how many will be saved with fires rage surface of earth is getting blazed how many cause everyones got ??an opinion?? this is shit to zion crew expresses um how many times has a baby been born how many times has lightening stuck in a storm how many times has your work been bought

yo how many times*scratching*how many live in the projects how many have sex before they fell in love how many people forget where they came from i seen some people that lost how many brothers get accused and hung on the cross how many children get neglected how many get raised in the land of the empty the home of the slaves

before we realize stand up we got to change things how many times has the sky dropped rain how many times has your heart felt pain how many times mastered again and again

how many times have you seen the sun rise how many times you looked into your lovers eyes

how many times have you bumped our cassette? how many times fades out
how many times have you watched a full moon?
