My Heart Won (Remastered)

Titiyo

You were coming back straight, coming back straight
From the dead
Coming back straight, straight into my head
You were coming back straight, coming back straight
From the dead, into my head, into my headI fought my heart
But my heart won
I fought my heart
But my heart wonYou're a man on a mission
A missionary man
A man out of time
And time is out of handYou're a man on a mission
A missionary man
I'm part of your plan
I guess I'm part of your planI raised with time
But time won
I raised with time
But time wonI fought my heart
But my heart won
I fought my heart
But my heart wonI should have known better
Should have known better
I should have known betterYou're a man on a mission
Coming for my soul
Becoming my shadow
My footprints in the snow
You're a man on a mission coming for my soul
Hunting me high, hunting me lowI fought my heart
But my heart won
I fought my heart
But my heart wonI fought my heart
But my heart won
I fought my heart
But my heart wonShould have known better
Should have known better
I should have known better...
