

Every Moment

Sam Ock

see, my heart is on fire for all of my hope is slipping through these cracks of all my sin... i know that You know these things this journey's taking all the strength i have.but You would (take me in/pick me up) again this fallen, beaten, state i'm in (with/in) You i know that i have everything and i wonder will it be today, or maybe tomorrow that i find my strength in You? for the road is long with sunshine and sorrow but still i cherish every moment with You!yes i do! (right here,) when i'm with You!see, i'm weary, i'm tired but You give me peace of mind through all my days and all my nights i know that You're guiding me so every doubt i have will fade away there is no better place of love and amazing grace no more tears or pain
'til then i will never cease to pray!
