

Do You Feel The Same

Silverchair

Moon covered determined to find
To find my place of hiding
Try to detach, try to decrease
To make it easier on me
Despise myself for what you've done
Sent me back into my world
Hold yourself 'cause no one will
I'll make it easier
Now, I have managed to be the one
To be the victim without the gun
Do you feel the same anyway?
Now you've come
Do you feel the same anyway?
Now you've come
Stay alert cause I'm obsessed
Surely I can't be depressed
Could I be read if I was see through
Or would you just read my spine?
Could I be read if I was see through?
Could I be read if I was see through?
Could I be read if I was see through?
Or would you just read my spine?
Now, I have managed to be the one
To be the victim without the gun
Do you feel the same anyway?
Now you've come
Do you feel the same? Feel the same
Now you've come
Do you feel the same anyway?
Hold yourself 'cause no-one will
I'll be there to take the spill
Cleanse your soul, change the tide
And ride the wave back here to me
Be the one without the gun
Do you feel the same anyway?
Now you've come
Do you feel the same anyway?
Now you've come
Do you feel the same? Feel the same
Now you've come
Do you feel the same anyway?
Now you've come
