Heavily Sedated

RKL

Due to all your anger, hate and pent up aggression
We must start to fight the next in line, its sure to come depression
Always moving forward never giving in to sure regression
I'll see you here each week so we can start
Your final session, but as you probed my mind
Tell me what you find, and what it means to me
I'm a monster fueled by rage systematically created,
I must be heavily sedated.
Step right in here, son, and we'll get ready to begin
With needles in my arms and electrodes buried in my skin
He said "Sit back, relax and you might feel a slight prick,
And later when you wake you might feel a little sick."
But when I opened my eyes and to my surprise
I wasn't me caught in a bind that I awoke to find...
They stole my mind.
Now passive for the moment,
Was the monster hate created, gagged and bound,
Condition read... Heavily Sedated
Well, they cut me with their knife in hopes of a better life
But it left me so confused, fucked up, and jaded
They said that it must be to soothe the monster inside of me
Now I find myself heavily sedated!
But when I opened my eyes and to my surprise,
I wasn't me caught in a bind that I awoke to find...
They stole my mind!
As I lay calm and passive, no more ?visions? in my head
????
???? was the bright ?? of the night
They say, with some success, I can live a normal life but,
I'm a monster fueled by rage
I'm a monster fueled by rage
I'm a monster fueled by rage
Systematically created
And now I'm Heavily Sedated.
