

Lost

Aaron Tippin

A couple of bucks worth the change in the ashtray, a half a tank of Texaco
Now you're sitting with your feet on the dash fiddling with the radio
Take a left at the edge of town, out where the roads ain't paved
And if we never find our way back, it doesn't matter anyway 'Cause I've been lost since you found me head over heart and soul
As long as your arms are around me, it don't matter where we go
I'm right where I always dreamed that I would be Lost since you found me We can go to the Oklahoma, take a swim if it gets too hot
Or have an ice cold Coca-Cola at the whistle stop
I never noticed that a little white house with a for sale sign
And I've been up and down this road about a million times But I've been lost since you found me head over heart and soul
As long as your arms are around me, it don't matter where we go
I'm right where I always dreamed that I would be Lost since you found me Ever since you came in sight, I don't know my left from right
Where I start or where you end baby, all I know is I've been lost since you found me head over heart and soul
As long as your arms are around me, it don't matter where I go
I'm right where I always dreamed that I would be Lost since you found me, since you found me Lost since you found me, I've been lost since you found me
Since you found me, lost, lost, lost, lost, since you found me
