Insane

Scars on Broadway

So many ways to hide
I see the trouble deep insideLet's go insane again
Bring back the pain again
Let's go insane again
Bring back the pain againRun, run baby, run
You'll see the things to overcomeLet's go insane again
Bring back the pain again
Let's go insane again
Bring back the pain againDream, dream your broken dream
You'll see the things I never seeLet's go insane again
Bring back the pain again
Let's go insane again
Bring back the pain againLet's go insane again
Bring back the pain again
Let's go insane again
Bring back the pain again
