Tila Tequila

Would you be mad if you saw me kiss another guy.
You know i want you but your just a little bit too shy.
Though we make love i've been thinking about someone else.
I don't mean to be this way but were just not the same.

I know you have that feeling
That everything i say is just a lie.
You know i got you whipped and i don't really give a damn what people say.
They all Pretend to be your friends but in the end they hit on me.
Kiss me just one last time because i will just be your memory.

Do you really want to know what i did lastnight.
I met a boy at the club and he felt me to play
Put his fingers through my hair and touched me everywhere.
Now that i have told you do you still want me here.

I know you have that feeling
That everything i say is just a lie.
You know i got you whipped and i don't really give a damn what people say.
They all Pretend to be your friends but in the end they hit on me.
Kiss me just one last time because i will just be your memory.

kiss me kiss me kiss me because i will just be your memory

I know you have that feeling
That everything i say is just a lie.
You know i got you whipped and i don't really give a damn what people say.
They all Pretend to be your friends but in the end they hit on me.
Kiss me just one last time because i will just be your memory.
