

Wish You Well

Ryan Keen

It's the question that drives you,
It's the question that brought us here.
Do you still want me beside you?
And pretend we're fine?
If it was all perfect now,
If it all ran flawlessly,
Would that make it worth it?
Would that make it worth our time?
I'll never be your enemy my dear,
Thought we've tried to find a remedy,
It's gone too far now and we both know,
It's time to go!
But I wish you well. Is the question the answer?
Coz we've been planting these seeds of doubt.
Through the tear and the laughter.
We've been through it all and we've said it a million times now.
Coz we've been running in circles,
of rose tinted times gone by.
It hurts me to hurt you,
But we're not fine.
I hope you'll always be a friend to me my dear,
Coz we've tried to find a remedy,
It's gone too far now and we both know,
It's time to go,
But I wish you well. I wish you well.
It's the question that drives you,
It's the question that brought us here.
