

Everything Comes At the Right Time

Ocean Colour Scene

I got a better love
Got a whole new prose
Got a whole new goal and I gonna find love
Im gonna fall in love and it makes me cold
And I gotta move my heels
Gotta move outta here
Gotta change my lane and I, I commend you now
Yes, I told you soon, so that youd know now
And at times
Everything comes at the right time
And at times
Everything comes at the right time
I, never understand
Never understand with this pain in my hand
And I cut my home
Yes I cut my home when I need to go
And I know your face
Know it aches and I know its sad
Oh I, quit that scene
Cos I could not see just where to be
And at times
Everything comes at the right time
And at times
Everything comes at the right time
Yes I got a better love
Got a big part of love and it makes me whole
Oh I, yes I play with love
Yes I play with love and its playing with me
There are times
Everything comes at the right time
And at times
Everything comes at the right time
And at times
Everything comes at the right time
And at times
Everything comes at the right time
Come on over to my side now
Come on over to my side now
