House of Cards

Shiraz Lane

Corruption everywhere
Gettin' underneath my skin
You look the other way
Walk over them and smile

What gives us the right to block them out of sight to stay out of the fight to pretend it's alright

Say you could save a life prevent another bitter strife clear up somebody's sky
Would you care to try?

Could you even shed a tear?
Please try

GUILTY
Coming down like a house of cards
Too much is not enough
Too much is not enough
GUILTY
Coming down like a house of cards
Too much is not enough
Too much is not enough

Deception everywhere
the streets are filled with empty shells
Finding brand new ways to hold on to denial

Could you even shed a tear?
Would you care to try?
Could you even shed a tear?

GUILTY
Coming down like a house of cards
Too much is not enough
Too much is not enough
GUILTY

Coming down like a house of cards
Too much is not enough
Too much is not enough

Corruption everywhere
Don't you see?
It's bound to fall down

(SOLO)

GUILTY
Coming down like a house of cards
Too much is not enough
Too much is not enough
GUILTY
Coming down like a house of cards
Too much is not enough
Too much is not enough
GUILTY
Coming down like a house of cards
Too much is not enough
Too much is not enough
GUILTY
Coming down like a house of cards
Too much is not enough
Too much is not enough
