

New Dawn Coming

Cowboy Junkies

Hold on honey, there's a new dawn coming and a big bird to sweep you awayAre you born yet? Are you listening?
Are you sick of staring at the walls?Are you hungry? Are you angry?
Are you wondering if there's anyone at all?Hold on honey there's a new dawn coming
and a big bird to sweep you away
Keep on dreaming soon there'll be a reason to see it through one more dayAre you weary? Are you sinking?
Are you tired of holding up the walls?Are you done with all your thinking?
Have you found that there's no one at all?Hold on honey there's a new dawn coming
and a big bird to sweep you away
Keep on dreaming soon there'll be a reason to see it through one more dayAin't got no answers here
What I see is not clear
Time to shake it around Turn my world upside down and watch as the stars come unhingedHold on honey there's a new dawn coming
and a big bird to sweep you away
Keep on dreaming soon there'll be a reason to see it through one more dayHold on honey there's a new dawn coming and a big bird to sweep us away
Keep on dreaming soon there'll be a reason to see it through one more dayAre you born yet?
Are you born yet?
