

Perhaps

Arshad

I don't wanna believe
I don't wanna believe it's true
I didn't want you to leave
Now it's hurting cause I found you

You showed me what it meant to live
And taught me things I won't forget
Maybe some last words I never meant to know

Straight & fast
Is how I fell for you
I taste your lips at last
A memory overdue
But when you left my world collapsed
I've lost all faith in my perhaps
And here I am back at the start
Cause even memories fall apart

I hope you're somewhere out there
Somewhere beautiful
Refurnished ivory florals
Where love is meant to hold

You showed me what it meant to live
And taught me things I won't forget
Maybe some last words I never meant to know

Straight & fast
Is how I fell for you
I taste your lips at last
A memory overdue
But when you left my world collapsed
I've lost all faith in my perhaps
And here I am back at the start
Cause even memories fall apart

If I'm the drizzle then you're the hurricane Can't stop feeling that I'm the one to blame
Don't know what I got into
You said "To be continued?"

And I know this is a challenge
And I'll get out of this labyrinth
And I'll hold onto these memories
Just as long as life will let me

Straight & fast
Is how I fell for you
I taste your lips at last
A memory overdue
But when you left my world collapsed
I've lost all faith in my perhaps
And here I am back at the start
Cause even memories fall apart
