Going Off Again

Mercutio

Waking up lying next to you
Doesn't work for me like it used to Roll out of bed and head for the door
We go back a long, long way
Gotta stop living in yesterday
You don't get me up anymore

Maybe it's me, but I'm thinking it's you
What's a man supposed to do?

Even a fool could see
All of the things that you're doing to me
I found myself in a world of misery
Now that you're going off again

You don't get my attention
With your faded looks not to mention
I hate the sound of your voice
Don't feel like being by myself
I don't want to look for something else
I'm too tired to make a choice

Lie down in bed and turn you on
But I know there's something wrong, wrong

Even a fool could see
All of the things that you're doing to me
I found myself in a world of misery
Now that you're going off again

Can't live without you, I can't wait for the day
When I throw you away

Even a fool could see
All of the things that you're doing to me
I found myself in a world of misery
Now that you're going off again

Oh, even a fool could see
Even a fool could see

I found myself in a world of misery
Now that you're going off again
