

Turn The Tide (Lonely Way Home)

Praying Mantis

This would be killing me if I hadn't walked away
We never said goodbye
Maybe that's how it should have stayed Another time, another life
You would have set me free I'll be forever by your side
If only I could turn the tide
Forever in this loneliness
This guilt inside
I'm driving the lonely way home But I never said it won't protect me
From the light of day
And all the moments spent with you
Inside my head must go away Another time, another life
You would have set me free
I'll be forever by your side
If only I could turn the tide
Forever in this loneliness
This guilt inside
I'm driving the lonely way home Acoustic Solo Another time, another life
You would have set me free I'll be forever by your side
If only I could turn the tide
Forever in this loneliness
This guilt inside
I'm driving the lonely way home Driving the lonely way home
Forever by your side
Forever by your side
Turning back the tide
I'll be forever by your side
If only I could turn the tide
Forever in this loneliness
This guilt inside
I'm driving the lonely way home Turning back the tide
Forever by your side
If only I could turn back time I'm driving the lonely way home
I'm driving my way home
