I Choose Life

Keisha White

Used to be easy,
Used to have truth hangin round,
Never had secrets,
Always singin your praises good and loud,All I got is questions,
And you left me wondering why,
Why you keep your distance,
Every lonely night,When love was bound together,
Believed it by the letter,
It closed my eyes for ever,
Cos everything has changed and nowI aint gonna look the other way,
After all the clouds go by,
Its just another empty sky,
I aint gonna wait to see the rain,
Nothings gonna make it right,
Look at me cos I choose life,Its all about giving,
Its not about winning the game,
My mind was opened,
Ready or not you closed it up again,
Still I keep asking,
If youve got something to hide,
I never stopped learning, all the reasons why,It took about a minute,
To find the point and hit it,
Gotta take this life and live it,
Cos everything has changed and nowI aint gonna look the other way,
After all the clouds go by,
Its just another empty sky,
I aint gonna wait to see the rain,
Nothings gonna make it right,
Look at me cos I choose life,When all the lights go out,
So suddenly, I lose my way,
So baby tell me, is something goin on,
You gotta free me, this time Im gonna be strong,I aint gonna look the other way,
After all the clouds go by,
Its just another empty sky,
I aint gonna wait to see the rain,
Nothings gonna make it right,
Look at me cos I choose life,
