I Understand

Dwele

I understand that as a man I would never understand you I can't understand how you let a man right out command u and I'm not just speaking from salt lake city cause that man ain't me when clearly it should be I'm just saying i know u understand from past circumstances you lose you do understand by me interjecting i'm breaking all types of man rules and i understand i don't wear his shoes but i hate seeing you blue you know that im here for u when he dont give a fuck about u. i would lie, would cry, would die for you i just want to understand you, repeat i understand that leaving him might create a broken man but i understand sometimes better a broken man than his broken hand i understand that i'll never understand what u going thru but i understand sometimes you just need someone to talk to.

i understand sometimes we will lose are way but i understand tomorrow comes a better day and i understand you need someone to be your confidant well i'm right here to lay it down oh i would lie, would cry, would die for you i just want to understand you, 3x's repeat I understand it's okay it's alright it's okay, repeat 2x's it's gon be alright, it's gon be alright
