The Plot to Bomb the Panhandle

A Day to Remember

Here's to the pastLet's all think back on
What brought us here
This is my grasp on what is real
Don't tell me how I feelWith all that's passed I can't relate
With myself from day to day
Why does everything seem so far away
To meThere's no turning back from here
I've got to get away from everyone who's left
Everyone who's leftI'll tell the saddest story
Of how we made it through this past year
I'll tell the saddest story
Of how we made it through this past yearThey said we'd walk away
You'll never make it if you can't speak for yourself
They said we'd fade awayWe've all been down
This path before
You're trapped in this town
And it wears you downWhen we leave today
Then maybe you'll understand
This constant struggle
Isn't always in the palm of our handThere's no turning back from here
I got to get away from everyone who's left
Everyone who's leftI'll tell the saddest story
Of how we made it through this past year
I'll tell the saddest story
Of how we made it through this past yearThey said we'd walk away
You'll never make it if you can't speak for yourself
They said we'd fade awayThis man will stand the test of time
This man will stand the test of time
This man will stand the test of time
This man will stand the test of timeI'll tell the saddest story
Of how we made it through this past year
I'll tell the saddest story
Of how we made it through this past yearThey said we'd walk away
You'll never make it if you can't speak for yourself
They said we'd fade away