

Gotta Get Away from Tommy

New York Dolls

Tommy's got a brother named Thomas
And another brother named Tom
Their father's a professional fighter
And I think so is their momGotta get away, gotta get away
Get away from Tommy
But Tommy won't get away
Won't stay away from me
Get away from me, TommyTommy gets his wisdom through excess
Tommy don't hold no scorn
Transcends limits of his culture
The very one from where I was bornGotta get away, gotta get away
Get away from Tommy
But Tommy won't get away
Won't stay away from me
Get away from me, TommyTommy don't follow no tradition
The song that he sings is his own
I can hear the shame bells ringing
I don't wanna die aloneGotta get away, gotta get away
Get away from Tommy
One time and he won't get away
Won't stay away from meGotta get away, gotta get away
Get away from Tommy
But Tommy won't get away
Won't stay away from me
Get away from me, Tommy
