

Red Sharks

Crimson Glory

Trapped in their world no free passage to leave
You accept their tyrannical dream
You pray to their gods not to your chosen ones
Freedom's clutched in the jaw of red kings Give us your freedom, we'll give you hell
Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil
Give us your freedom, we'll give you hell
Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil Glory to red sharks
Answer to your red dictators
Feeding from your dreams
Cast into a sea of red sharks Holding the power, a hand that grips fate
Stripping from you all but fear
Hovering vultures like demons feed
On all who bow to their communist scheme Give us your freedom, we'll give you hell
Hear no evil, see no evil, speak no evil
Give us your freedom, we'll give you hell
Hear no freedom, see no freedom, speak no freedom Glory to red sharks
Answer to your red dictators
Feeding from your dreams
Cast into a sea of red sharks Red sharks
Bloody red sharks
Red sharks, red sharks
Bloody red sharks
Red sharks
